RAW-16670, 7 August 1962 1. Reference dispatch brought forth an onslaught of traces to the Desk as a result of the submission of our memo trace process. Since you are most probably well aware of WILHELM's widespread contacts to almost all the Western services in Europe, and the DES as well, we will limit our comments to brief identifying statements relevant to the persons mentioned in [redacted] report furnished with reference. 2. The former German Colonel WILHELM mentioned in the report as an UHILL agent is undoubtedly Dr. Wolfgang WILHELM [redacted] of Rosenheim. WILHELM's relationship with UHILL, and specifically WILHELM's claim that he actually was WILHELM pay UHILL, is contained in GFA 1947, 27 November 1959 and RAW-16670, 10 September 1960 which we believe are available to Vienna. In RAW 779, 20 December 1959 it is stated that WILHELM was traced with UHILL in 1954, at which time UHILL denied ever employing him. It is interesting to note in reference that WILHELM's sub-source, HUB, now also identifies WILHELM as being an UHILL agent. WILHELM's association with UHILL was the subject of RAW 167 of 10 April 1961 which virtually confirmed WILHELM as the actual source of UHILL reports. 3. The other personalities mentioned in reference are known to us as follows: a. Franz Josef WILHELM, living in Munich, Dupleide 12, is reported as a financial leader of the German Reichsbank, Munich, and an influential person in the VW Union of Christian Social Union (the Nazi League). He is also a member of the Deutsche Christen Sozial Union in Munich, and reported as a Reichsbank. He owned an advertising firm in Munich, Weinstube 1. There are no other relevant traces to him. b. Dr. Franz Josef WILHELM GUNTER [redacted] is an important Austrian CONTINUED
